

R. H. Mathews recorded verb paradigms showing affix transferring characteristics. Nothing else is known. Suggested by Austin it may be classified here.

97.4a* Yuwalyay

D27 here should be D54. D27 is assigned to Yuwalarai/Yuwaalaraay. (AIAS D27)

Yualjai (orig. AIAS), Yualyai (SAW), Yuwalyay (AIAS)

Two dialects, Yualjai and Yuwalaray are now recognised; only the former appeared in the 1966 classification.

'man' : dine (Barlow); dhein (JM), thane, dane (C:175)

97.4b* Yuwalarai

Wurm lists as a separate dialect. Barlow recorded as Yowalleri. Other spellings: Yerraleroi, Juwalarai.

'man' : ure (AC); dhayin (Austin from old sources)

97.5 Wiri-Wiri

D45 (AIAS D28)

Thomas' word list in 'Science of Man' referred to in 'RLS' is not Wiri-Wiri but wiradjuri, 97.1a. (Austin)

'man' : my-ee (Barlow); mayi (Austin from old sources)

97.6 Nguri ? Moonie River, Q. (Austin)

Nguri (AC, AIAS, SAW), Ngoorie (Barlow)

Nothing known about this dialect. Wurm queries its classification here.

'man' : dine (Barlow)

[97.7 Barunggama See 94.lg*.]

98. b. Miyal Subgroup

It appears that only a few old sources remain as the basis of our information for this group. Barlow's vocabularies give the words for 'eye/foot/ear' as miyil/mi:l ("meel")
