

[59.3b Waringari

A38 (AIAS A63)

Means 'north-east' (Hudson); 'area of the circle' from wori 'circle' + -ngan suffix (Vaszolyi)

Both Hudson and Vaszolyi agree this is a geographical not a language name, though they differ on the meaning of the word. Vaszolyi says it is a term recorded in Ngarinjin, Gunin and Wunambal and refers to an extended circular area including now pastoral stations of Mt. Elisabeth, Gibb River, Mt. House, Glenroy, Tableland, Lansdown, Springvale, Bedford Downs, Kuranjie, Dunham River, Ord River and Pentecost Downs. According to Ngarinjin informants, this area used to be the country of the Wuladjao, a linguistic group akin to Ngarinjin.]
