

Baad (Porteus), Baa (N & W), Ba:d (WHD, Porteus),
Bard (AC, O'G, APE, SAW, orig. AIAS, Peile), Barda
 (DB, Campbell & Bird), Bardi (Metcalf, AIAS, Kerr)

Is noted for its highly complex verb system - highly agglutinating - which produces a sentence in miniature. Metcalfe (1973) has completed major depth study which includes Bardi Verb morphology, texts and a comprehensive Bardi-English dictionary. Number of speakers is approx. 360 including children whose language is somewhat impoverished, living today primarily at Derby, Sunday Island, Broome and Lombardina.

'man' : gangga, manga; 'initiated man' : mambungan
 (Kerr)

Metcalf says amba is the general word for 'man'; mang(a) amba - 'black man', but is probably a
 'manufactured' word; gangga may be ganjga - 'mainland',
 'mainland person'.
