

Because of certain aberrant features Wurm has tentatively classified as an aberrant subgroup of the Kulinic Group but there are certain features which link it with Pama-Maric languages hence it may constitute a separate group within the Pama-Nyungan Family. Very little data is to hand to work on.

81A* Nari-Nari D32 (AIAS D9)
(85.3)

Nari-Nari (AIAS), Narinari (SAW, AC, orig. AIAS)

Incorrectly listed in 'RLS' as an alternate name for Yabula-Yabula, 85.3.

82. c.* Druak (Bungandidj* - SAW) Subgroup

82.1a Mardidjali S48 (AIAS S16)

Mardidjali (AC, AIAS), Marditjali (T, O'G, SAW, 'RLS')

82.1b Bungandidj S11 (AIAS S13)

Bungandidj (AC, SAW, AIAS), Buandik (SAW alt. sp., O'G, 'RLS')
