Douglas contacted this dialect in 1964. von Brandenstein has more recently surveyed. He maps Tedei in two places - Towrona Station (South Inggarda) and south of Woorama River (Malgana). Only a handful who know the dialect remain today, living at Carnarvon and Denham.

(lWr.)

May mean 'smooth mouth' (von B)

Daguda ('RLS'), Dagurda (AIAS), Takurda (SAW), Taakurda (von B), Nugan (means 'that one' an alternate name - von B)

Unclassified in 'RLS' (lWr.) but Wurm classifies here and von Brandenstein agrees it is related to Malgana. The latter has made brief recordings of songs and stories probably from the last informant.
